GENEVA ACADEMIC FOUNDATION GRANTS TWO $1,000.00 Scholarships to Deserving Geneva High School Students

GENEVA, Illinois, 6/4/14—Sunday, May 25th, the Geneva Academic Foundation (GAF) awarded $1,000.00 to two Geneva High School senior scholarship winners.

Students Hallie McQueeny and Evan Miles were selected to be the winners of the tributes based on a number of characteristics such as academic success, community service and merit, performing at least 50 hours of community service per year and, most importantly, writing an essay which defined the impact or influence they felt their experiences and services provided.

The awards were presented by the GAF Treasurer, Paul Wessel, to both recipients. Mr. Wessel said, “We are pleased to announce that this year we are able to double the amount of the Scholarships for each recipient. We wish them both well in all their academic pursuits!”

The awards were presented at the Senior Awards Night on May 25, 2014 which was held at Geneva High School’s packed auditorium full of parents, family, educators and supporters.
